

Allocation of Time/Resources

Many high school special educators spend the majority of their time working one-to-one with students.

A New Idea with Technology

The use of technology can shift the focus of work and provide more time for accommodations & modifications -

Strategies & tools that promote independence